Willunga Almonds

Stories + recipes

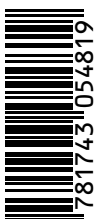

HELEN BENNETTS

HB 152 PP 230 x 170 FULL COL T/OUT ISBN 9781743054482 Food/History $39.95

Roasted with olive oil and thyme, coated in cinnamon and sugar, baked into frangipane, tossed through a salad, crushed into korma or just piled on a cheese board – the humble almond has endless delicious uses. For over 4000 years almonds have been steeped in symbolism, heralded for health benefits and incorporated in ingredients lists. In Australia the original home of almonds is Willunga, where this modest kernel holds a special place in local cuisine and the trees' blossom is still feted every year.

In Willunga Almonds Helen Bennetts celebrates this heritage and the almond's versatility with recipes from dips to desserts.

On a Clare Day

A vine change story

BURT SURMON

PB 320 PP 210 x 140 ISBN 9781743054819 Memoir $32.95

The green and lovely Clare Valley is one of Australia's finest wine regions. A fortnight's holiday among the vines convinces social planner Burt Surmon and his new wife Jeni to make a life-changing decision. They will quit the city grind to grow grapes, make wine, open a cellar door, art gallery and function centre ...

Forever optimistic, but largely ignorant of farming, Burt and Jeni begin a life of hard yakka. There are so many lessons to be learnt. Marketing, soil types, grape selection, occupational health and safety. And just how to wrangle those stray pigs and deer from the vines.

On a Clare Day is the story of two wine lovers riding wine's boom and bust. Their tale is seasoned with mouthwatering recipes, fusing peasant-style French and Italian with Middle Eastern and Asian cooking.
