Saturday 8 September

9.00 am – Doors open
11.00 am – Michael Bollen
With over twenty years’ experience in the industry, Michael Bollen, Publisher at Wakefield Press, has plenty of knowledge to impart. Come armed with your questions. This is the perfect opportunity to get the inside scoop on the industry, and pick up some tips on publishing your own book.

12.00 pm – Amy T. Matthews
Amy T. Matthews won the Adelaide Festival Unpublished Manuscript Award in 2010 for her acclaimed novel End of the Night Girl, in which a sassy Adelaide waitress is haunted by the ghost of a murdered Polish Jew. Amy teaches creative writing at Adelaide University, and she loves to write. Come share her thoughts and experiences.

12.00 pm until close – Wine tasting
Taste the delectable award-winning Fox Creek Wines.

1.00 pm – Don Loffler
Don Loffler is Australia’s leading expert on early model Holdens, as shown in his four bestsellers Me and My Holden, She’s a Beauty!, Still Holden Together and The FJ Holden. Don is a former German, Latin and Chemistry teacher, who now delights in writing about his lifetime interest. His next book, Holden Days, will appear later this year.

2.00 pm – Rosemary Cadden
Want to know what to do with that lonely carrot at the back of the crisper? Which everyday vegetable is healthier cooked than raw, what staple causes food poisoning in the home, and why apes peel their bananas from the other end? Rosemary Cadden, co-author of Making a Meal of It: Smart ways to buy, store and use up food, has the answer to these questions and more . . .

3.00 pm – Lance Campbell
Lance Campbell is author of City Streets: Progressive Adelaide 75 years on, which takes you on a fascinating stroll through our city, comparing the CBD’s main streets, building-for-building, 1936 to now. Lance has been arts editor of the Adelaide Advertiser, has written for The Adelaide Review, and contributed to several books. He is now arts and architecture editor of SALife magazine.

Sunday 9 September

9.00 am – Doors open
11.00 am – Michael Bollen
Publisher, Wakefield Press

12.00 pm – Jude Aquilina
One of SA’s best-known poets, Jude Aquilina has published many books. She also teaches writing.

1.00 pm – Deb Kandelaars
Deb Kandelaars’ novel Memoirs of a Suburban Girl takes us back to 1979 when a teenage girl is charmed by a man she meets in a disco – before long she finds herself entangled in a world of strange and frightening characters. Deb will speak about writing, and the social issues in her book.

2.00 pm – Patricia Sumerling
Historian Patricia Sumerling is author of Down at the Local: A social history of the hotels of Kensington and Norwood and The Noon Lady of Towitta: A mystery. Her most recent book, The Adelaide Park Lands: A social history, recounts tales both enchanting and bizarre, from the time of earliest European settlement until the present day.

3.00 pm – Liz Harfull
Have you been to a country show and wondered who are the people behind the vast, tantalising spread? Liz Harfull is the author of the best-selling The Blue Ribbon Cookbook, giving behind-the-scenes insights into prize-winning show recipes, and the inner workings of your annual country show.
