PETER BARNES, LANCE CAMPBELL, JOHN NOWLAND
March 2021
HB • 120 PP • 300 x 270
ISBN 9781743057377 • $49.95

'Some projects in this book are quiet contributors to the urban realm. Others make a statement. … I hope that this beautiful celebration of key architecture in this state stimulates you to look afresh at the spaces you occupy and to better value the good design around us.' – Nicolette Di Lernia, Australian Institute of Architects

Elaine Haxton
A colourful artist and life
LORRAINE PENNY McLOUGHLIN
February 2021
JACKETED HB • 192 PP • 290 x 280
ISBN 9781743057698 • $79.95

This book celebrates the extraordinary life of artist Elaine Haxton and illustrates with beautiful reproductions the range and quality of her work, asserting her rightful place as a significant twentieth century Australian artist.

Through hard work, flair and endless energy, she produced fine work in many spheres, always seriously reviewed and respectfully acclaimed.

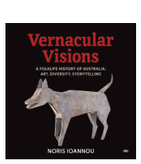
Bee-stung Lips reproduces more than 100 of Barbara Hanrahan's works on paper, while new essays by Nic Brown, Jacqueline Millner and Elspeth Pitt delve into the artist's themes, motivations and motifs, affirming the singularity of Hanrahan's vision and its relevance to our times thirty years after the artist's death in her prime.

Becoming a Bird
Untold stories about art
STEPHANIE RADOK
April 2021
PB • 182 PP • 198 x 129 ISBN 9781743058022 • $24.95

Writer and artist Stephanie Radok reflects on art and its purposes. Becoming a Bird includes her travels to multiple museums in the northern hemisphere, wandering and wondering.

In twelve meditative stories which reflect on memory, childhood, weeds, death, freedom and the soft fur of a dog, Stephanie Radok discovers that, mostly, we are all at home everywhere in this world.



Vernacular Visions
A folklife history of Australia: art, diversity, storytelling
NORIS IOANNOU
March 2021
JACKETED HB • 292 PP • 260 x 250
ISBN 9781743057384 • $79.95

What is the character of Australian folk creativity, where does it spring from, and what does it say about the diverse make-up of the nation and its history and culture? Cultural historian Dr Noris Ioannou explores these queries in this, the first comprehensive and richly illustrated cultural history text on Australian folk creativity, its art and its stories.
